Hello Laurie:

Since you are my contact person for the Tam O' Shanter Dancers I would like to thank the group immensely for the wonderful opening to our Chamber Music concert last night. It was a really nice variety to the concert and such energy and skill in the dancers. They were so light on their feet and precise, smiling the whole dance, obviously well-taught and practised, making something that must be quite difficult look so fluent.

Please pass on our thanks to everyone who participated and gave up their valuable time for our concert.

All the best
Sharon Jones
