History

1982 - A demonstration group named the 'Heather Belles' was formed in White Rock, lead by Scottish Country Dance teacher Maureen Lyon.

1987- When men were invited to join the group, it was renamed, "The Tam O' Shanter Dancers". Tam O' Shanter is the name of a famous poem written by Scotland's greatest poet, Robert Burns.

Meet the Tam O' Shanter Dancers

Scottish Country Dance
Demonstration Group

The goal of the Tam O' Shanter Dancers is to promote Scottish Country Dancing through demonstration at local and international social and cultural events.

The Dancers are based in White Rock, British Columbia, just south of Vancouver, Canada. They perform regularly in the Lower Mainland of British Columbia, but have also performed at international events on their tours of Scotland and Hawaii.

As well as presenting spirited performances at their Annual Burns Celebration, the dancers have entertained at the following venues: The White Rock Chamber Music concerts, The Vancouver Scotch Club, The Hellenic Centre, The Scottish Cultural Centre, Crescent Gardens Residence, Campbell Valley Country Fair, White Rock Kent Street Activity Centre, The Peninsula Resort Retirement Centre, Hallmark on the Lake and Hawthorne Lodge. They have also participated in the Vancouver Celtic Fest Parade, The Hyack Parade and the White Rock Spirit of the Sea Torchlight Parade.

Invite the Tam O' Shanter Dancers to bring a touch of Scotland to your next event, evening of entertainment, Wedding, Birthday or Anniversary.
